

RCR19 - CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

Submissions are invited for Clinical Oncology Scientific abstracts and the Audit ePoster Competition, which are held as part of RCR19.

Scientific abstracts

Submissions are invited for Clinical Oncology scientific abstracts as part of the Wormald ePoster and oral presentation competition which is held as a part of the RCR Annual Scientific Meeting. This year's meeting will be held in Liverpool on 14 to 16 October 2019.

Abstracts should be based on scientific research in the area of Clinical Oncology and can be entered for ePoster display and/or oral presentation, and both trainees and consultants are encouraged to submit.

Applications must be submitted online through the online CO Wormald abstract competition form, which can be found on the RCR website.

Why submit?

- Abstracts will be selected to either give a 10-minute oral presentation or produce an ePoster to be displayed on giant tablets at RCR19, the RCR website and the RCR19 conference app.
- Oral presentations will be eligible for a proffered paper award for which the first prize is £250.
- ePoster presentations will be eligible for the Wormald poster prize: £250 first prize, £125 each for two highly commended ePosters.
- All accepted abstracts will be given citable references and included in a Clinical Oncology online supplement published by Elsevier.
- 3 CPD credits are awarded to the lead author and 1 to each co-author for posters displayed at the RCR19.

Audit abstracts

The Clinical Oncology Audit and Quality Improvement (QI) ePoster competition will take place at RCR19 this year and submissions are now open. Don't miss the opportunity to share the improvements your audit or QI project made to patient care and outcomes.

Why submit?

- Abstracts of all ePosters accepted for display are published in a supplement of Clinical Oncology.
- First prize is £280 and second prize is £70.
- Authors of audit ePosters displayed at RCR19 are awarded CPD credits (3 for the lead author and 1 for co-authors). E-poster authors may be invited to give a short presentation of their work.

Key dates

- Submission deadline Friday 12 April 2019 at 12 noon GMT. Authors will receive an email confirmation of receipt of their submission.
- Authors will be notified of the outcome of their submission by email no later than Friday 31 May 2019.
