INTERACTIVE TRAUMA IMAGING WITH ELIZABETH DICK

Venue: University of Liverpool in London

This hands-on interactive workshop will allow delegates to work through real-life cases in a virtual emergency department setting. The facilitators will lead discussion and review the imaging, highlight learning points and potential pitfalls.

Educational aims:

- To establish and consolidate a systematic approach to trauma reporting
- To gain confidence in abilities to pick up subtle injuries
- To get exposure to a wide variety of injuries in a simulated real-life setting
